Guidance Notes

Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

In the above descriptions, the following words have the following meanings –

“body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest” means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director, or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest;

“director” includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society;

“land” excludes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for the relevant person (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income;

“relevant authority” means the authority of which you are a member;

“securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and other securities of any description, other than money deposited with a building society.

Other Registerable Personal Interests

(a) If the authority has appointed or nominated you as its official representative on any outside body or bodies please set out in this section the name(s) of any such body/ies.

(b) If you are a member, or you hold a position of general control or management, of any other public authority or body (for example, the fire authority for the area) details should be included in this section.

(c) If you are a member, or you hold a position of general control or management, of any charity or similar organisation, details should be included in this section.

NB: it should be noted that the term ‘bodies with charitable purposes’ can include organisations which do not fall within the legal definition of a charity. For example, Rotary or Lions clubs or the Freemasons. If you have any queries as to whether you need to register an interest in this (or any other category), then please speak to the officer mentioned in the guidance notes at the end of this form.

(d) If you are a member, or you hold a position of general control or management, of any organisation whose main purpose is to influence public opinion or policy (for example a lobbying or campaigning group, whether national or local), you should set out the name(s) here.

(e) If you have received a gift or hospitality with an estimated value of more than £50, within the previous 3 years, you should set out the name of the person from whom you received it here.

This relates to gifts or hospitality attributable to your position as a member of the authority. You should also give brief details of the gift or hospitality.

If you require assistance to complete this form, please contact the Strategic Governance Lead.

Disclosure of Receipt of Gifts and Hospitality

This form should be sent to the Strategic Governance Lead. Please give precise details of the offer (e.g. including the precise number and estimated value where possible) - it is not sufficient to use generic terms such as "Concert Tickets".
